

Developing Performing, Composing and Appreciating Skills in Primary Dance – One Day Course

One Dance UK, the subject association for dance, provides primary school teachers exceptional training and resources to teach dance from Reception to Year 6. The courses are run by expert trainers and are supported by resources based on Complete Guide to Primary Dance, Lyn Paine.

“Members of staff from both Key Stages have attended both Primary Dance Days. Staff have come back inspired and motivated to develop dance units and support other staff.” - Clare McNally, Head Teacher

Outcomes.

Following the day you will have:

- Further understanding of the processes of performing, composing and appreciating dance
- Confidence to deliver a broad range of dance experiences
- Understanding of progression and assessment
- Understanding of how to make effective use of the dance frameworks

The course combines both practical work and discussion. You will receive a copy of The Complete Guide to Primary Dance by Lyn Paine (RRP: £32.49), additional resources and a certificate of attendance.

Developing Performing, Composing and Appreciating Skills in Primary Dance – One Day Course

Course Tutor information:

Courses leaders include the following experts*:

Lyn Paine

Lyn Paine worked as a Local Authority adviser and inspector for many years and is an experienced teacher trainer and dance consultant. She has taught dance to all ages and phases and has led dance CPD nationally for the National Dance Teachers Association, NRCD and AQA. Lyn has written several dance resources, including Complete Guide to Primary Dance, Up the Sides and Down the Middle and many dance programmes for BBC Education. She was also co-author and editor of AQA's GCSE Dance text book. Lyn has directed young people's dance performances at Bournemouth International Centre and The Royal Albert Hall. Lyn was a founder member of East London Dance and Activate (formerly Dorset Dance Forum).

Sue Trotman

Sue Trotman has worked in education for the past 40 years and until March 2016 was joint Chair of the National Dance Teachers Association (NDDTA). She is a member of the executive board for the Council for Subject Associations (CfSA) and Director of her own company, providing educational consultancy for both Physical Education and Dance. Sue has been involved in teaching, advisory work, inspection and has delivered Physical Education and Dance in-service training both nationally and internationally. She has supported a number of government agencies, providing national guidance and resources to schools. As Chair of Curriculum and Staffing and Vice Chair of Governors at an outstanding primary school, she provides up to date school improvement knowledge and development. Sue is also a member of the Association for Physical Education (afPE), where she takes an active role in the professional development of afPE West Midlands and is currently on both the national Early Years Advisory Board and national Expert Physical Education Group.

Debbie Hartley

Debbie has a B.Ed in Dance and trained at the London College of Dance and Drama. She has taught in Leicestershire for 31 years and in her role as Lea Advisory Teacher for Dance, she developed and supported the use of dance in all phases of education and via the Leicestershire Youth Dance Network. Her experience embraces primary and secondary dance teaching, CPD provision and support for teachers delivering GCSE Dance.

Debbie is currently working as a freelance Dance Consultant co-ordinating and delivering Primary Dance Festivals whilst continuing to support GCSE Dance students and teachers.

*We also use other expert teachers to deliver courses, this list is indicative of the caliber of trainers