Dance group from Aberdeen selected for UK youth dance festival at London's Southbank Centre

A talented dance group from Aberdeen has been selected to perform in the UK youth dance festival, U.Dance 2019

Fusion Youth Dance Company, a youth dance company from Citymoves Dance Agency, Aberdeen will perform at U.Dance 2019. U.Dance is a national youth dance festival presented by One Dance UK, in partnership with the ISTD, which returns to London's South Bank this summer with a line-up of youth dance groups from across the United Kingdom. The National Youth Dance Company of Scotland will also be making a guest appearance during this year's festival.

Being selected for U.Dance is an exciting opportunity for Fusion Youth Dance Company who will be performing a piece entitled When the land crumbles I will run through water. Katie Taylor, Dancer of Fusion Youth Dance Company comments "It feels great that Fusion have been selected to be part of U.dance this year, especially since there are so many great youth companies attending. It is such an honour to have been selected from such a high standard of companies at Ydance Destinations. Our piece means a lot to us and our Choreographer, Steven Martin, so we are thrilled that we get to share it on such an amazing platform like U.Dance!"

Fusion Youth Dance Company join an impressive line-up of twenty dance groups, selected from over 290 entrants involving thousands of young people nationwide through a series of 20 regional heats. The groups will perform at Queen Elizabeth Hall, housed within Europe's largest centre for the arts, and take part in activities spanning the South Bank, including National Theatre, Rambert and BFI Southbank.

One Dance UK's Head of Children and Young People, Laura Nicholson, comments:

"We were overwhelmed this year with hundreds of applications from youth dance groups from across the country. The standard was exceptionally high, demonstrating that young people in the UK are passionate about creating and performing groundbreaking and high-quality dance work."

Each year the U.Dance national youth dance festival showcases a selection of the best dance groups from all over the country in a range of performances and gives the opportunity for hundreds of young people to take part in workshops and masterclasses with dance industry professionals, inspire each other with a love of dance and develop their understanding within the dance sector.

Andrew Hurst, Chief Executive of One Dance UK says:

“The U.Dance national youth dance festival is an important event on the dance calendar we are delighted to be working in partnership with the ISTD to deliver this year’s event. From the regional platforms to the Festival itself, U.Dance engages with more than 2,000 young dancers, encouraging them in the pursuit of excellence in dance and embarking on careers in dance, highlighting one of One Dance UK’s key aspirations – to raise the profile of dance teaching and practice in all its diverse forms.”

About Fusion Youth Dance Company

Fusion are Citymoves Dance agency's youth performance company based in Aberdeen. The main objective of the company is to perform regularly on stage and in unusual spaces around Aberdeen and across the UK. Over the past year, Fusion performed a work by Joan Cleville at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, took part in a week long residency with the White and Givan's company and recently created their brand new choreography by Steven Martin, 'When the land crumbles, I will run through water.' Fusion meet weekly with artistic director Gillian McKechnie to work on their technique, expand their creative skills and to allow the group to get a feel for how professional companies work and rehearse, as well as meeting new friends along the way.
